P R E F A C E.

THESE Lists were originally put together by Lieutenant Conder, but I have revised the Arabic spelling from careful comparison with the field books and the notes of the native scribe. For the English definitions I am myself responsible. The transliteration I have been obliged to leave untouched, as it was already finally engraved upon the Map before I took the matter in hand. The Committee had decided upon the adoption of Robinson's system, which has, however, only been partially followed, no difference being made between the equivalents for the cognate Arabic letters س and ص, ك and ق &c. ; still it fairly represents the sound of the Arabic words in English ; and as they are given in Arabic characters as well, this circumstance can occasion no difficulty to scholars. Many of the names were collected by the English members of the party, and submitted to the scribe afterwards, who seems to have written down some conjecturally, the delicate distinction between certain letters not being appreciable to an ordinary European ear. I have endeavoured by careful philological investigation of the words to settle their orthography, and believe that the names will, in most instances, be found correct, though it is quite possible that some may need revision on the spot by an investigator with a practised ear.

To determine the exact meaning of Arabic topographical names is by no means easy. Some are descriptive of physical features, but even these are often either obsolete or distorted words. Others are derived from long since forgotten incidents, or owners whose memory has passed away. Others again are survivals of older Nabathean, Hebrew, Canaanite, and other names, either quite meaningless in Arabic, or having an Arabic form in which the original sound is perhaps more or less preserved, but the sense entirely lost. Occasionally Hebrew, especially Biblical and Talmudic names, remain scarcely altered; some of these I have indicated; but I have only done so in obvious cases, avoiding mere speculation. The lists will, nevertheless, be found to furnish better data for such researches than any which have hitherto appeared, and future study of them will no doubt reveal much that is of interest, both to philology and Biblical topography.

The Arabic follows the Hebrew letter for letter, except that س s in the former generally represents either ש sh or ס s in the latter; while ش sh stands for س s; sometimes ع 'ain appears as ح h; ك k and כ kh, and occasionally ع 'ain and ا alif are also interchanged, in Arabic, but these last are rare. In some instances the modern local form represents the Hebrew with scarcely any change; in others the Hebrew word is simply translated into Arabic, as Dan, "a judge," which appears as Tell Kâdhi, "the judge's mound." In others, again, the older form has grown into an intelligible Arabic word, similar in sound, but quite different in meaning, and therefore inapplicable as a descriptive epithet.

The topographical commonplaces, such as رأس râs, "a hill-top or headland," Heb. ראש rosh; عین 'ain, "a spring," Heb. עין 'en, &c., are for the most part alike in both languages; while such Hebrew or Aramaic words as טירה tîreh, "a fort," בירה bîreh, "a castle," are often confounded with the Arabic طير tair, "a bird," and بئر bir, "a well."

The reader will find in the following pages the meanings of the Arabic words, as far as I could ascertain them, with suggestions as to the more obvious Hebrew and Aramaic derivations. The letters p.n. (proper name) after a name, mean either that it is a common Arabic personal appellation, or that it is a word to which no meaning can be assigned; the former will be at once recognized by the Arabic scholar, the latter will form interesting problems for future investigation.

My previous work in the nomenclature of Sinai and the Tih, has given me the key to many difficulties in Arabic nomenclature, but many still remain unsolved. The names are not mere Arabic words to be translated, but, as I have said, are most varied forms containing multifarious elements, upon which philology alone does not afford us sufficient data to pronounce. All that I could hope to do was to state the certainties, offer suggestions as to the probabilities, and leave the rest to other hands.

ARABIC AND ENGLISH NAME LISTS,

WITH

TRANSLITERATION AND EXPLANATION.

SHEET I.

- | | | |
|---------------|----|--|
| عباسية | Nb | ' Abbâstîych . From the proper name 'Abbâs, the uncle of the Prophet, from whose family descended the Abbaside Khalifs of Bagdad. |
| عين ابى عمرو | Nb | ' Ain Abu 'Amr . Abu Amr's spring. p.n. |
| عين العليليات | Nc | ' Ain el Alciliyât . 'The spring of successive draughts or torrents'; but it is probably a proper name. |
| عين عطاء الله | Mb | ' Ain 'Atâallah . 'Atâallah's spring. p.n., meaning 'God's gift,' 'Theodore.' |
| عين الظلطا | Mc | ' Ain edh Dhclat , or زلطا ezsalat , which latter word means in the vulgar language 'pebbles,' and in the older language to 'move violently.' |
| عين فراوية | Mc | ' Ain Furâwîyat ; perhaps from فرة furâ in the sense of 'waste-land.' |
| عين الغربية | Nc | ' Ain el Gharbîyeh . The western spring. |
| عين الحبشية | Nb | ' Ain el Hnbcishîych . The spring of the Abyssinian. Sepp suggests that the name is connected with the Egypto-Ethiopian deity Abus, from which the Theban Temple of Medinet Abu and the colossal monuments of Aboo-Simbel are named. Justin, XLIV, 4, mentions the God-King of the Celtiberians, Habis, from whom the Phœnicians may have taken this deity. Abibaal is the name of a Tyrian king, and points to a similar connection. |

- عين ابل Nc 'Ain Ib'âl, vulgar pronunciation Ib'âl, pl. of bâl. 'Elevated land on which no water falls,' or 'unwatered vegetation.' The word may be connected with the name Baal.
- عين جيلو Nc 'Ain Jilû. The spring of Jilû, perhaps a corruption of Jila, or 'antimony ore.'
- عين الجديدة Mb 'Ain el Judeidch. The new spring; or, the spring of 'dykes,' i.e., coloured streaks in the rocks.
- عين كنيسة Nc 'Ain Kuncisch. The spring of the church.
- عين كردية Nc 'Ain Kurdîych. The spring of the Kurds.
- عين التيسيس Nc 'Ain el Kûsts. The (Christian) Priest's spring.
- عين المعليا Mc 'Ain el Mallîych. The spring of 'successive draughts' or 'irrigations.'
- عين المثنيات Mc 'Ain el Mûthniyât. Spring of the lands twice turned over for sowing.
- عين المدفنة Mc 'Ain el Medfench. The spring of the burial-place.
- عين شدغيث Nb 'Ain Shidghîth. The spring of Shidghith. Cf. Heb. שדה 'fields surrounding a city,' and ית Phœn. for ענת 'a vale.'
- عين صور Mb 'Ain Sûr. The well of the rock or, of Tyre.
- عين تورد Nb 'Ain Torah. The spring of running water.
- عين ام العمل Mb 'Ain Umm el 'Aml. The spring of the mother of work.
- عين يارين Nc 'Ain Yârîn. The spring of Yârîn.
- عين الزهيرية Mc 'Ain es Zahcîrîych (properly Zuhcîrîych). The spring of little flowers; but this is probably a proper name.
- عين ابي عبدالله Nb 'Ain Abu 'Abdallah. Abu Abdallah's spring. p.n.
- عقبة على Nb 'Akabat 'Alî. Ali's steep. Ali, the cousin and son-in-law of the Prophet Mohammed, is the great saint of the Metawileh and other Shiah sects.
- عمود الاطرش Mc 'Amûd el Atrash. The column (oil press) of the deaf man.
- عمود البيروتي Mc 'Amud el Beirûty. The column (oil press) of the Beirût man.
- عرب النميرات
الغياضة (or) النميراة Mb 'Arab en Numeirât el Kaiyâdeh. The Arabs of the Numeirat el Kaiyâdeh tribe, descendants of Numeir, 'the little leopard'; cf. Ninrim.

- ارض السواتى {Mc} Ard es Sawâky. The land of small water-courses.
 ارض الزميرية {Mc} Ard es Zahirîyeh. The land of little flowers; see above.
 'Ain es Zahirîyeh.
 عريض الكبير {Nb} 'Aridh el Kêbir. The large broad space or mountain side عواميد المنقلة Mb 'Awâmîd el Menkeleh. The columns of the Menkeleh, i.e., a game played by Arab children with a long board containing 14 squares, 7 on each side, and each square containing 7 pebbles. The word also means 'a stage'
 (of a journey).
 بحور Nb Bahhûr. Seas, or large tracts of land.
 بازورية Nb Bâzûrîyeh. Producing pot-herbs; see Khallet el Bâzûrîyeh,
p. 5.
 بيت بيدون Mc Beit Beidûn. The house of Beidûn. p.n.
 بيت حولى Nc Beit Hûlei. The house of Hûlei. p.n.
 بيت شاكور Mb Beit Shâkûrah. The house of Shâkûrah. p.n.
 بستان العقاد Mb Bestân el 'Akkâd. The garden of the 'Akkâd, i.e., of the maker of a taâkkud, or 'the projecting portion of the interior stone casing of a well.' But perhaps from عقدة
 the bud of a plant.
 بدياس Nb Bidiyâs. Bidiyâs. p.n.
 بئر العقاد Mb Bir el 'Akkad. The well of the 'Akkâd; see above.
 بئر بيت الصغير {Nb} Bir Beit es Saghir. The well of the little house.
 بئر الجبلون Mb Bir el Jebelûn. The well of Jebelûn (a local form of word from jebel, a mountain).
 بئر الواسع Mc Bir el Wâsih. The well of ample contents.
 بركة عين الزرقاء Ma Birket 'Ain es Zarkâ. The pool of the blue spring.
 بركة البتوبق Mb Birket el Bakkûk. The pool of gurgling.
 بركة البق Mb Birket el Bass (probably المس). The pool of crumbling, or the swamp.
 بركة العسراوى Mc Birket el Isrâwîy. El Isrâwîy's pool, p.n., meaning left-handed or ambidexter.
 بركة الصنصاف Mc Birket es Sûfsâfeh. The pool of the osier.
 بركة تل الحجر Mb Birket Tell el Bahr. The pool of the mound of the sea

بياس بدياس	Nb	Biyâdh Bidiâs.	The white place of Bidiâs.
برج هوا	Mb	Burj el Hâwa (harwâ).	The air tower.
برج التبلى	Mb	Burj el Kibly.	The south tower.
برج رحال	Nb	Burj Rahhâl.	The traveller's tower.
برج الشمالى	Mb	Burj esh Shemâly.	The northern tower.
دير الأربعين	Nb	Deir el Arba'in.	The 'convent of the Forty,' i.e. , the Forty Martyrs of Cappadocia, canonized by the Orthodox Greek Church.
دير قانون رأس العين	Mc	Deir Kânûn Râs el 'Ain.	The convent of the Rule (canon) at Râs el 'Ain. So called to distinguish it from another village of the same name not far distant.
دير التنبى	Nc	Deir el Kubbeî.	The vaulted or domed convent.
ظهر حيدر	Nb	Dhahr Heider.	Heider's ridge. Heider , 'lion,' is an epithet of Ali the Metawileh saint.
الدير	Nb	Ed Deir.	The convent.
الحمادية	Mb	El Hammâdiyyeh.	The place of Hammâd. p.n.
العزبة	Mb	El 'Ezzîyah.	Probably connected with 'izz, 'flowing' water.
عزبة التحتا	Mc	'Ezzîyat et Tahta (Uzzîyet).	The lower 'Ezziyah.
حوشة الاعافد	{ Nb nc}	Hautat el Aâ'freh.	The enclosure of the A'âfreh (family name).
ابن زكريا	Nc	Ibn Zakariyeh.	The son of Zakariyah, i.e. , 'John the Baptist.' Perhaps one of his numerous shrines was to be found here.
حنوية	Nc	Hcnawei.	The little bend (of a valley, &c.).
جبال البطم	Nc	Jebâl el Butm.	The mountains of the Terebinth trees.
جبل العمود	Nc	Jebel el 'Amûd.	The mountain of the column.
جبل النقب	Nb	Jebel en Nûkb.	The mountain of the Pass.
جبل الصوان	Nc	Jebel es Survân.	The mountain of the Flint.
جسر العزبة	Lc	Jisr el 'Ezzîyah.	The 'Ezziyeh bridge; see 'Ezzîyat et Tahtâ.
جسر التاسمية	Nb	Jisr el Kâsimîyah.	The bridge of the Kasimiyeh; see Nahr el Kâsimîyah.

- جب سويد Mc Jubb Sûweid. Jubb means 'a pit,' and sûweid 'blackish'; but the latter also means 'water,' and 'salt-tracts.'
- جوار النخل Mb Juwâr en Nûkhl. The water-holes of the palms. The word Nûkhl is however probably connected with נחל 'a watercourse'; see Khûrbet Juwâr en Nûkhl.
- قبر حيرام Nc Kabr Hîrâm. Hiram's tomb.
- قضاة سمور {Me
Nb} Kada Sûr. The district of Tyre; see "Memoirs," p. 44.
- قانا Nc Kânâ. p.n. Cana.
- الكنيسة Nc El Kentesch. The church.
- خلة ابي علول {Mb
Nb
nw} Khallet Abu 'Allûl. Abu Allûl's dell. p.n.; cf. Ain el 'Alcilat.
- خلة ابي تمش Nb Khallet Abu 'Amesh. Abu 'Amesh's dell.
- خلة عين ابي عمرو Nb Khallet Ain Abu Amr. The dell of the spring of Abu 'Amr.
- خلة حطيطه Nc Khallet 'Atîtah. The dell of the rent or split.
- خلة البازورية {Mc nw} Khallet el Bâzûriyeh. The dell of the Bazûriyeh. From بزر 'seeds of leguminous plants,' or 'silkworms' eggs.'
- خلة الدفعة Nc Khallet Dafâh. The dell of the rushing (torrent, &c.).
- خلة حسن Nb Khallet Hasan. Hasan's dell. Hasan, the son of Ali, is another of the Metawileh saints.
- خلة حاتم Mc Khallet Hâtîm. Hâtîm's dell. Hâtîm et Tâiy was an Arab who lived about Mohammed's time, and was celebrated for his liberality.
- خلة الكرار Mc Khallet el Kerâr. The dell of the store-house.
- خلة الخارورية Mb Khallet el Kharrûbeh. The dell of the Carob (or locust) tree.
- خلة المطحنة Nb Khallet el Metahneh. The dell of the water-mill.
- خلة المزرعاني Mc Khallet el Mezrâny. The dell of the cultivator.
- خلة الملاحه Nb Khallet el Millâhah. The dell of the salt-works; see Khûrbet 'Akabet el Mellahah.
- خلة المعنى {Nb
nw} Khallet el Muânna. The dell of the captive. But the word may also mean 'land fertilized by showers and producing herbage.'
- خلة المغارة {Nc
nw} Khallet el Mughârat. The dell of the cave.

خلة النبع	Nc	Khallet en Nebà.	The dell of the perennial spring.
خلة الثقاب	{Nb Nc}	Khallet en Nûkâb.	The dell of the passes.
خلة العليقة	Nc	Khallet 'Olleikah.	The dell of the thorn bushes or brambles.
خلة الشمسية	Nc	Khallet es Shemsîyeh.	Shemsîyeh means 'sunny.'
خلة الشوحة	Nb	Khallet esh Shûhah.	The dell of the kite.
خلة السوق	Nc	Khallet es Sâk.	The dell of the market.
خلة الزاوية	Nc	Khallet ez Zâwiyyeh.	The dell of the corner or hermitage.
خلة الزبل	Nc	Khallet ez Zibl.	The dell of dung (manure).
خان القاسمية	Ma	Khân el Kâsimîyeh.	The Kasimiyyeh Khân or Caravanscrai; see Nahr el Kasimîyeh.
خلال الصابون	Mb	Khelâl es Sâbôn.	The dells of the soap-works.
الخنربة	Mc	El Khûrbet.	The ruin.
خربة ابي الفرحات	Nc	Khûrbet Abu Ferhât.	Abu Ferhât's ruin. Ferhât is a Syrian proper name.
خربة ابي صجنة	Nc	Khûrbet Abu 'Ajneh.	The ruin of Abu 'Ajneh. The name may mean "the man with the fat cattle," but in Hebrew and Aramaic it has the sense of 'hedged in,' or 'debarred.'
خربة ابي صالح	Nb	Khûrbet Abu Sâleh.	The ruin of Abu Saleh. p.n.
خربة علي صالح	Mc	Khûrbet 'Alî Sâleh.	Ali Saleh's ruin. p.n.
خربة عقبة الملاح	Nb	Khûrbet 'Akabet el Mellâhah.	The ruin of the steep, or mountain road of the salt-works (but the last word may be a corruption from Imlâhah , water becoming sweet after being brackish).
خربة العمود	Mc	Khûrbet el 'Amûd.	The ruin of the column.
خربة العواميد	Mc	Khûrbet el 'Awâmîd.	The ruin of the columns.
خربة دبش	Nc	Khûrbet Dabbîsh.	The ruin of Dabbish; perhaps from دبشه, which in vulgar Arabic means a 'clod.'
خربة الديبر	Mc	Khûrbet ed Deir.	The ruin of the convent.
خربة الدبس	Nc	Khûrbet ed Dibs.	The ruin of grape-syrup; but this is probably connected with the Hebrew רבשה 'a hill.'

- خربة دكمش Mb Khürbet Dūkmash. The ruin of the purblind man. Vulgar for dakash; this also means a 'pole for raking out an oven,' or 'stirring a fire.'
- خربة عزية الثوفا Mc Khürbet 'Ezziyât el Fôka. The ruin of the upper 'Ezziyah.
- خربة الثربوية Ne Khürbet el Furciwîyeh; see 'Ain el Furciwîyeh.
- خربة حودة Mc Khürbet el Hammûdeh. The ruin of Hammûdeh. p.n. from ح د 'to praise.'
- خربة الحذية Mc Khürbet el Hanîyeh. The ruin of the bend.
- خربة جارودية Mb Khürbet Jârûdiyeh. The ruin of the Jârûdiyeh (a Shiah sect, followers of Abu'l Jârûd Ziyâd).
- خربة جبل الكبير Ne Khürbet Jebel el Kabîr. The ruin of the great mountain.
- خربة جنبيل Ne Khürbet Junjeil. Probably connected with or corrupted from jundeil, diminutive of jandal, a strong place.
- خربة جوار النخل Nb Khürbet Juwâr en Nukhl. Jawâr means both 'abundant and deep water,' and an 'exterior courtyard.' Nukhl means a palm-tree; but is perhaps connected with the Hebrew נחל a water-course.
- خربة قابو المعصرة Mc Khürbet Kabu el Ma'tsreh. The ruin of the cellar or vault of the olive press.
- خربة قبور الرصاص Mc Khürbet Kabûr er Resâs. The ruin of the leaden tombs.
- خربة الخمسية Ne Khürbet el Khamîsyeh. The ruin of the Khamîsyeh (from خمسة five).
- خربة خشنه Ne Khürbet Khashnah. The ruin of the coarse ground.
- خربة خوتة Mc Khürbet Khôta. The ruin of Khota; perhaps from خواتمة the noise of a flowing torrent, &c.
- خربة الكنيسة Ne Khürbet el Kuncisch. The ruin of the church.
- خربة القرنين Mc Khürbet el Kurein. The ruin of the little horn, or peak.
- خربة المعليا Mc Khürbet el Mâllîyeh; see 'Ain el Mâllîyeh.
- خربة الملوحيه Mc Khürbet el Malûhiyeh; see Khürbet el Mellâhah.
- خربة مشتا الصحر Ne Khürbet Mashta el As-hcr. The ruin of the dusty-red winter quarters.
- خربة المدفنة Mc Khürbet el Medfench. The ruin of the burial place.
- خربة الملاحه Ne Khürbet el Mellâhah; see 'Akabat Khürbet el Mellakha.

- خربة المرج Mc Khūrbet el Merj. The ruin of the meadow or 'prairie.'
 خربة مرج النسر Nb Khūrbet Merj en Nāsir. The ruin of the meadow of the eagle.
 خربة ميماس Mc Khūrbet Mîmâs. The ruin of Mîmâs. p.n.
 خربة المصبغ Nc Khūrbet el Musebbah. Musebbah means a man who travels till morning, or who gives a morning draught to another.
 خربة المثنية Mc Khūrbet el Muthniyeh. The ruin of the land twice turned over for sowing.
 خربة رأس اللوزة Mc Khūrbet Ras el Lôzeh. The ruin of the almond-tree head (fountain head or cape).
 خربة شحور التما Mc Khūrbet Shahûr el Kanâ. The conspicuous or notable parts of the aqueduct.
 خربة السدين Mb Khūrbet Siddein. The ruin of the two ramparts.
 خربة الشرافيات Nb Khūrbet es Sherâfiyât. The ruin of the cornices or parapets.
 خربة شدغيث Nb Khūrbet Shidghîth. See 'Ain Shidghîth, p. 2.
 خربة سويدية Nc Khūrbet Suweidiyeh. The blackish ruin; but see Jubb Sâweid.
 خربة الطيبة Mc Khūrbet et Taiyebah. The ruin of sweet or wholesome water.
 خربة طرية Nb Khūrbet Tarabiyeh. The spring of the Tarabiyeh. The word means 'joy' or 'mirth.'
 خربة تل القاضي Nb Khūrbet Tell el Kâdy. The ruin of the Judge's mound.
 خربة الوردانية Nc Khūrbet el Wardiâneh. Either from ward, 'to go down to a well or spring for water,' or the modern Arabic word borrowed from the Italian, and meaning 'guardians.'
 خربة يارين Nc Khūrbet Yârîn. The ruin of Yârîn. p.n.
 خربة الزحميرة Mc Khūrbet ez Zahcîriyeh. The ruin of the little flowers. But probably a family name.
 خربة الزعرية Mc Khūrbet ez Zâterîyeh (properly Zatherîyeh). The ruin of thyme.
 خربة Nc Khureibeh. The little ruin.
 الكنيسة Nc El Kuncisch. The little church.
 القرية Nc El Kurcîh. The little village.

- كرم داب Nb Kurm Dâbil. The vineyard of Dâbil ; perhaps from dhabel, 'withering.'
- كرم مسرطن Ne Kurm Muserten. The vineyard of Muserten. p.n.
- كرم السوقى Nb Kurm es Sûky. The vineyard of the market-man.
- ليلة or ليلية Mc Leileh. Leileh, a female proper name. It means also 'night.'
- مالكية Mc Mâlkîyeh. The royal (building). It may refer to the (Christian) Malekite sect, but is more probably a reminiscence of the worship of the Tyrian deity Melkarth, 'the city king.'
- منصورة Mc Mansûrah. Mansûr's (building) ; cf. Neby Mansûr.
- معشوق Mâshûk. Beloved ; see Neby Mâshûk.
- مرج قليلة Mc Merj Kaleileh. The meadow of the hillock.
- مرج منصور Mc Merj el Mansûrah. The meadow of Mansûrah. p.n.
- مغارة جورة ادريس Nb Mûghârat Jûrat Idrîs. The cave of the water-hole of Enoch.
- مغارة ابي ذكر {Mb} Mughârat Abu Dhekr. Abu Dhekr's cave. p.n.
- مغارة اللواتين Mb Mughârat el Lawâtîn (properly Lawwâtîn). The cave of the plasterers. The word has also an indecent meaning.
- محمد نوف Nb Muhammed Nûf. Mohammed Nûf. p.n.
- نهر القاسمية Nb Nahr el Kâsimîyeh. The river Kâsimîyeh.
The old and generally accepted interpretation of the word Kâsimîyeh as the 'boundary river,' from the Arabic root Kasam, 'to divide,' is inadmissible, the latter word meaning to 'apportion,' and not to 'divide,' in the sense alluded to. It is unquestionably named from Sheikh or Neby Kâsim, whose shrine is still the most venerated in the country, and who is to be identified with the Phœnician Cadmus, Cadmiel or Casmîel.
- نبح العزبة Mc Nebâ el 'Ezzîyeh. The spring of 'El Ezziyeh ; q.v.
- نبي عمران Mc Neby 'Amrân. The prophet Amrân. Neby means here a 'prophet's tomb' or 'shrine.' Amrân (or rather Imrân), who is not a Mohammedan prophet, is identical with the Amram of the Bible, the father of Moses. He is mentioned several times in the Kor'an.

- نبي الجليل Nc Neby el Jelil. The prophet El Jelil, 'the illustrious.' Probably a reminiscence of the name Galilee.
- نبي قاسم Mb Neby Kâsim. The prophet Kâsim; see Nahr el Kâsimîych.
- نبي منصور Mc Neby Mansûr. The prophet Mansûr (victor).
- نبي معشوق Mb Neby Mâshûk. The prophet Mâshûk (beloved).
The word Mâshûk means 'beloved.' It is needless to say that no prophet of the name exists in either the Mohammedan or Christian hagiology. The word is probably a survival of the ancient title of the deity to whom the shrine was dedicated, namely the Tyrian Hercules, Baal Moloch or Melkarth, worshipped under the Egyptian name of Mi-amun or Memnon, 'the Beloved of Ammon,' to whom, as Lucian distinctly tells us, an Egyptian temple existed at Tyre. The name may be compared with that of Abraham, Khalil Allah, 'the Friend of Allah,' and with that of the Cretan Zeus, called by the Greeks Meilichios, who is also identified with this deity.
- رأس العين Mc Râs el 'Ain. The head of the spring.
- رميدية Nc Rumcidîych. The ashy or ash coloured.
- رشيدية Mc Rushcidîych. The building of Rusheid Pasha.
- رويسات عبد على Mc Ruwcisat 'Abd 'Alî. 'Abd 'Alî's 'heads,' or hill-tops.
- رويسات البيارة Nc Ruwcisat el Beiyârah. The hill-tops of the well-sinkers.
- سهل معشوق Mb Sahel Ma'shûk. Ma'shûk's plain.
- سماعية Mc Semmaâîych. Semma'iych. p.n.
- شعثية Nc Shâtîych. 'Dishevelled,' 'straggling.'
- شيخ داود Mb Sheikh Dâûd. Sheikh David. Sheikh, elder, is used for a saint, or saint's tomb. Dâûd is the Arabic form of the name David, but the shrine must not be confounded with that of the Hebrew Poet King. It is most probably another of the shrines of Melkarth, who, according to Syncellus, was called by the Phœnicians Dibdan, Διβδαν. The name David itself is identical with Mâshûk in signification; see Neby Mâshûk above.
- شتيف الاحمر Mc Shakîf el Ahmar. The red cleft.
- شتيف الدلافه Nc Shakîf el Dellâfeh. The cleft of dripping water.
- شرنى Mb Shernei. Shernei. p.n.

- الصور Mb Er Sûr. Tyre.
- تيردبة Nb Teir Dubbeh. The fortress of the bear. The meaning of this word teir is very doubtful. The Arab scribe who wrote out the list of names has added a note, written in pencil, in Arabic, explaining that it 'means a beam or partition between two walled gardens, and is sometimes used as an equivalent for tllh'; the latter word he interprets 'desert.' His explanation is, however, taken verbatim from the smaller Arabic dictionary by Bustani, published in Beirût (Katr el Muhîl), and he has misunderstood the word tllh, which, as there used, means 'pride,' and is coupled with the synonym kibr. It is probably the Aramaic word טִירָה (טִיר) meaning 'fort,' or 'court.'
- وادی الثغرد Mb Tell eth Thoghrah. The mound of the frontier road.
- توردة Nb Torah. Flowing water.
- وادی ابی حسن Nc Wâdy Abu Hasan. The valley of Abu Hasan. p.n.

أمّ إلها دمّ OR أمّ إلها دمّ	Os	Umm Ilha Dumm. This name is evidently incorrect, and has no meaning whatever in either of the forms given. The first word means 'mother'; the last has been rendered by the officers 'blood,' in which case it should be written دمّ, without the doubled final radical. Lieut. Conder calls attention to the similarity of sound to the Latin Malcdommim used by Jerome ("Onom.," s. v, Adommim), for Heb. מִעֵלָה אֲדָמִים; but it is very unlikely that the latter Hebrew name should assume such a form as that in question.
